GLOBE PEQUOT HISTORY

Globe Pequot was founded 75 years ago in 1947 in Stonington, Connecticut. Williams D. Haynes, its founder, owned the Stonington Printing Company and enjoyed writing historical treatises which he would print himself. Named The Pequot Press after a local Native American Iroquois tribe, the company published hardcover and paperback books, including Connecticut town histories and genealogies. In 1960, Haynes sold the printing company. In 1967, a new owner moved the still-small publishing company down the coastline to Essex, Connecticut where it took up residence in the historic Pratt Smithy, a repurposed blacksmith shop founded in 1678 by William Pratt.

The Pequot Press became a publisher for New England historical societies and assisted neighboring towns and other local groups with their publishing needs. Robert Wilkerson purchased The Pequot Press in 1970 and moved the business up the Connecticut River to Chester, Connecticut. Wilkerson expanded the publishing program to include books of New England history, biography, architecture, antiques, genealogy, and travel. The company published an average of fifteen new titles per year in the 1970's, including the Guide to the Recommended Country Inns of New England and the Factory Store Guide to New England. Annual sales were around $300,000 in 1979.

The Boston Globe Newspaper Company purchased The Pequot Press in 1981 and changed the name to Globe Pequot Press. Over the next five years, the company grew at an average annual rate of 25 percent through organic growth of the core publishing program. In 1986, Globe Pequot Press purchased a similar regional publishing company in Charlotte, North Carolina called East Wood Press. In 1987, twenty titles were purchased from Pacific Search Press, a publisher located in the Pacific northwest. The company also acquired the international city and country guides from Cadogan Books of London, England, Gateway Books, and ICS Books.

In 1988, The Boston Globe sold the business to a subsidiary of McCaw Cellular Communications of Kirkland, Washington. McCaw was acquired in 1994 by AT&T and was renamed AT&T Wireless Services. In the early 1990's, Globe Pequot Press was publishing 300 titles a year and employed approximately 40 people, including its longtime president, Linda Kennedy.

In 1992, the company relocated from Chester back down the river to Old Saybrook, Connecticut, consolidating all publishing and fulfillment operations into one custom-designed 30,000-square-foot facility. The company was purchased by Morris Communications of Augusta, Georgia in 1997. Morris is a privately held company with nationwide holdings in newspaper and magazine publishing, outdoor advertising and computer services, including Gray's Sporting Journal and Alaska Magazine. In the late 1990's and early 2000's, Globe Pequot Press began an international expansion by distributing some of the most respected brand names in publishing, including Appalachian Mountain Club Books, Waterford Press, Berlitz, Cadogan Guides, Everyman Chess, Alastair Sawday Publishing and Bradt Travel Guides, most of whom remain distribution clients today. By the late 1990's, the company employed 50 individuals and generated annual sales of $10 million.

Globe Pequot Press moved once again in 1999 to an enlarged office in Guilford, Connecticut to accommodate the burgeoning staff and a new dedicated warehousing facility located in Springfield, Tennessee.

GLOBE PEQUOT HISTORY

Globe Pequot Press purchased Falcon Guides in 2000 from owner Bill Schneider in Helena, Montana. Falcon is now the largest publisher of hiking guides in the nation and publishes for enthusiasts of human-powered outdoor recreation, including mountaineering, paddling, camping, cycling, and nature guides. The acquisition included a nationally known regional travel series, Insiders' Guides, and a western history imprint, TwoDot, which publishes the New York Times bestseller, The Doctor Wore Petticoats by author Chris Ens.

Building on an already impressive trade list, Globe Pequot Press purchased Lyons Press in 2001, a leading publisher of high-quality books on fishing and hunting, nature, animals, military history, American history, and sports.

In 2014, Globe Pequot Press was purchased by The Rowman & Littlefield Publishing Group of Lanham, Maryland and the name was changed to Globe Pequot®. Founded in 1949 in New York City, Rowman & Littlefield is one of the largest independently owned book publishers in the country. In addition to its trade group, the company publishes college textbooks and academic books under the Rowman & Littlefield imprint, scholarly books under Lexington Books and K-8 educational books under its Sundance-Newbridge imprints in Marlborough, Massachusetts. It also owns National Book Network (NBN), one of the industry's oldest and largest independent distributors of trade publishers.

Today Globe Pequot® and its other regional imprints such as Down East Books (Maine), Pineapple Press (Florida), North Country Books (upstate New York) and Two Dot (Western states) form the largest publisher of regional books in the nation. The publishing program also includes numerous other leading trade imprints such as Prometheus Books, Stackpole Books, Gooseberry Patch, Muddy Boots, McBooks Press, Astragal Press, Applause Books, Backbeat Books, Limelight Editions, M. Evans, Taylor Trade Publishing and Eclipse Press. In 2022, Down East Books celebrates its 55th anniversary, Gooseberry Patch its 35th and Stackpole Books its 95th year.

Globe Pequot® has deep roots in many subject areas. Distributed by National Book Network, the distribution arm of Rowman & Littlefield, Globe Pequot maintains a robust publishing program of 600 new titles annually and some 30,000 backlist titles generating annual sales of close to $30 million. Crafters, climbers, kayakers, fly fishing anglers, naturalists, hikers, home cooks and bakers, trail runners, armchair travelers, American and military history fans, and explorers of all ages rely on Globe Pequot to equip and inspire them with the best in specialty, outdoor and regional publishing.

Globe Pequot's backlist includes such iconic titles as National Book Award finalist The Boy Kings of Texas (Lyons Press) by Domingo Martinez (page 24), the leading guide for fly anglers The Orvis Fly Fishing Guide (Lyons Press) by Tom Rosenbauer (page 271), the great novel of Florida A Land Remembered (Pineapple Press) by Patrick D. Smith (page 158), the true crime classic Anatomy of Evil (Prometheus) by Michael H. Stone (page 233), the New York Times Bestseller A Perfect Union of Contrary Things (Backbeat) by Maynard James Keenan (page 192), the recently adapted as a major motion picture In the Heights (Applause) by Lin-Manuel Miranda and Quiara Alegría Hudes (page 206), the personal finance giant The Millionaire Next Door (Taylor Trade) by Thomas J. Stanley and William D. Danko (page 28), the top selling astrology book in the country The Only Astrology Book You'll Ever Need (Taylor Trade) by Joanna Martine Woolfolk (page 27), the great story of Maine survival told in graphic novel format Lost Trail (Down East) by Donn Fendler (page 160), the inspiring children's book series, Do Princesses... (Cooper Square/Muddy Boots Books) by author Carmela Coyle and illustrator Mike Gordon (page 154), the maritime historical fiction classics in the Bolitho series (McBooks Press) by Alexander Kent (page 77), and the Army Officer's Guide (Stackpole Books) now in its 53rd edition by Dr Robert J. Dalessandro (page 108). And FalconGuides written by top outdoors experts and enthusiasts, have for many decades set the standard for outdoor recreation guides.

In 2022, Globe Pequot will relocate its offices once more. The company has purchased an office building at 64 South Main Street in Essex, Connecticut. This move will bring the business full circle back to its 1960's presence in one of America's most historic and well-preserved 17th century villages. On the banks of the Connecticut River, where whaling ships, ships of war and fishing boats were built when the country was still under British rule, Globe Pequot will enter its 76th year as one of America's leading independent publishers. Stop by and say hello the next time you are travelling along Interstate 95. We are halfway between Boston and New York.

Joyce Tenneson's detailed photographic studies of luminous sea shells adrift on a velvet-soft background remind us that startling beauty exists even in the most ordinary places. These surprising images give us a unique window into these secret lives of the sea. Short selected quotes from literature illuminate these ethereal portraits.

TWODOT

RANGER CONFIDENTIAL

By Andrea Lankford

In this graphic and yet surprisingly funny account of her and others' extraordinary careers, Lankford unveils a world in which park rangers struggle to maintain their idealism in the face of death, disillusionment, and the loss of a comrade killed while holding that thin green line between protecting the park from the people, the people from the park, and the people from each other. It's the story behind the scenery of the nation's crown jewels—Yosemite, Grand Canyon, Yellowstone, Great Smokies, Denali.

HARPO SPEAKS!

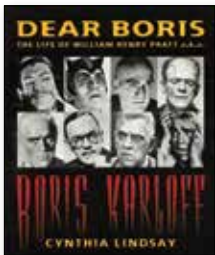

By Harpo Marx

"This is a riotous story which is reasonably mad and as accurate as a Marx brother can make it. Despite only a year and a half of schooling, Harpo, or perhaps his collaborator, is the best writer of the Marx Brother. Highly recommended."

MY STORY

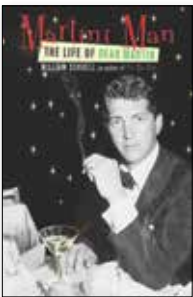

Illustrated Edition

By Marilyn Monroe, With Ben Hecht

The Marilyn in these pages is a revelation: a gifted, intelligent, vulnerable woman who was far more complex than the unwitting sex siren she portrayed on screen. Lavishly illustrated with photos of Marilyn, this special book celebrates the life and career of an American icon—from the unique perspective of the icon herself.

Silver Medal Florida Book Awards Nonfiction

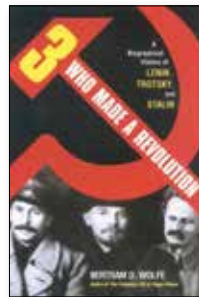

In the early 20th century, Bertha Palmer was one of the best-known and wealthiest women in America. She was an art collector, women's rights advocate, businesswoman, owner of Chicago's Palmer House Hotel, and had elegant homes in Chicago, Paris, and London. In 1910 she traveled to the small and rough settlement called Sarasota on the west coast of Florida. She managed to make a good deal of money and to change Sarasota forever.

MORE ALIKE THAN DIFFERENT

Memoir by David Egan

"Most people search their whole lives for their purpose, but David Egan has always been driven to achieve inclusion for people with intellectual disabilities. In this deeply personal book, he shares the experiences that shaped his life and family. This book is one of a kind: the honest, inclusive, insightful and moving story of the dreams and triumphs of a remarkable man with Down syndrome." —Dr. Timothy P Shriver, Chairman, Special Olympics International

GEORGE & BARBARA BUSH

By Ellie LeBlond Sosa and Kelly Anne Chase, Foreword by President George W. Bush

From teenage love to World War II to the White House—a love affair for the ages rooted in family and service.

“The First Couple of the Greatest Generation, the Bushes were bright and funny, strong and devoted, loving and enduring. Here is their story, wonderfully told by a granddaughter raised in the warm ethos of a fabled American family.”

ROYAL SISTERS

By Anne Edwards

This is the first dual biography of Elizabeth, the princess who was to become Queen, and her younger sister, Margaret, who was to be her subject. From birth to maturity, they were the stuff of which dreams are made. It's an honest look at how the royal sisters feel toward each other, their parents, their close relations and the men whom they have loved.

WHEN YOU FIND MY BODY

By D. Dauphinee

This book tells the story of events preceding Geraldine Largay's vanishing in July 2013, while hiking the Appalachian Trail in Maine, what caused her to go astray, and the massive search and rescue operation that followed. Marrying the joys and hardship of life in the outdoors, as well as exploring the search & rescue community, it examines dying with grace and dignity. There are lessons in the story, both large and small. Lessons that may well save lives in the future.

THE MILLIONAIRE NEXT DOOR

Twentieth Edition

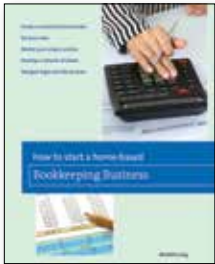

By Thomas J. Stanley Ph.D. and William D. Danko Ph.D., Foreword by Sarah Stanley Fallaw Ph.D.

“The implication of The Millionaire Next Door...is that nearly anybody with a steady job can amass a tidy fortune.” —Forbes

“I love the book, The Millionaire Next Door. It talks about how it is a myth that most millionaires in America have inherited their money. The fact is, we have created such a great country over 250 years. We have actually found the way for poor people to go from nothing to huge wealth and to create a life-changing opportunity for their children and grandchildren.”

THE FARM GIRL'S GUIDE TO PRESERVING THE HARVEST

By Ann Accetta-Scott

"Books on canning and preserving are a dime-a-dozen, but from the very first page, I could tell this one was different. Rather than approaching the topic with the usual textbook formality, Ann brings a human touch to the subject and makes me feel like I'm in her kitchen chatting about preservation methods over a cup of tea. From canning to root cellaring and everything in between, I will wholeheartedly be recommending The Farm Girl's Guide to Preserving the Harvest to anyone ready to start taking charge of their food supply and preserving their harvest." —JILL WINGER, founder, The Prairie Homestead, blogger at ThePrairieHomestead, author of The Prairie Homestead Cookbook

STALKING THE WILD ASPARAGUS

By Euell Gibbons

"He knew his subject first- and second-hand; he knew it backwards to the botany of the tribes. And now he told everybody else how to gather and prepare wild food. From the Red River Valley to the mountains of Pennsylvania (where he would spend his last years) he took us all over North America to places few people knew in the way he knew them, and he showed what provender was there. He called his first book Stalking the Wild Asparagus, and it became part of the beginnings of the ecological uplift and it sold well enough to get onto the bestseller lists." —John McPhee

A BLACKSMITHING PRIMER

Virtually every task beginning and intermediate blacksmiths must master is presented in this excellent book. Over 400 detailed drawings help increase comprehension levels. This is a reference manual that will be found lying open on the workbench more often than found on the bookshelf and is highly recommended to anyone swinging a hammer to shape hot metal.

STAINED GLASS MAKING BASICS

By Lynn Haunstein

The author has based the book on the highly successful hands-on approach that she has perfected teaching thousands of students in her stained glass classes. The projects—starting with the simplest and ranging to the more difficult—build on mastering skills and tools; understanding glass, copper foil, and lead came techniques; creating a good work environment; and stained glass safety.

CROCHET RAGDOLLS

By Sascha Blase-Van Wagtendonk

These crochet ragdolls are specially designed to be huggable lovelies for the little ones or loyal playmates for slightly older children. Many of the animals have patterns for both a large "mom or dad" version and a baby version, including the monkey, frog, cat, bunny, crocodile, dog, hippo, owl, kangaroo, fox, sheep, and penguin. There is even a section on how to make little clothes for them to wear.

THE NEW CROCHET STITCH DICTIONARY

By Nele Braas and Eveline Hetty-Burkart

"Designers Braas and Hetty-Burkart (35+ Potholders to Crochet) cover classic stitches and newly-created patterns in this encyclopedic guide. The authors organize the work into 11 sections based on stitch-type, and their step-by-step instructions cover basic stitches, shells and fans, spike stitches, and mesh patterns, among others. A helpful glossary divides patterns by type and level of difficulty, and patterns are both written out and charted, making it easy for readers to choose which way they prefer to conquer each project. Crocheters new and experienced alike would do well to have this on the shelf." — Publishers Weekly

THE HOMESTEADER'S HERBAL COMPANION

By Amy K. Fewell, Foreword by Joel Salatin

"Even as a homesteader myself, herbalism has always been a bit of a mystery. Until now. In The Homesteader's Herbal Companion, Amy makes herbalism not only easy to understand, but also inspiringly charming. Easy methods, dosages, and instructions make herbalism do-able, even for the average person. Looks like we'll all be planting a much larger herbal garden this spring." —Shaye Elliott, author of Welcome to the Farm and Family Table

WHY STOMACH ACID IS GOOD FOR YOU

By Jonathan V. Wright M.D. and Lane Lenard Ph.D.

CRAZY SEXY CANCER TIPS

By Kris Carr, Foreword by Sheryl Crow

"I read Crazy Sexy Cancer Tips cover to cover on a flight from LA to NY. I laughed out loud, wept quietly, and most of all, marveled at the magic that is Kris Carr. If Deepak Chopra, What To Expect When You're Expecting, and Sex and the City had a love child, it would look just like Kris' Crazy Sexy Cancer Tips. It is sheer perfection for cancer 'cowgirls' and their loved ones—colorful, soulful, and intimate." —Rory Freedman, coauthor of #1 NY Times best seller Skinny Bitch

THE BATTLE OF OKINAWA

By George Feifer

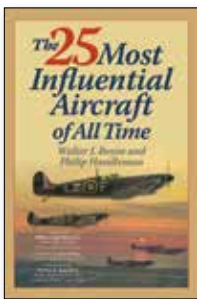

"A skillful narrative of combat history . . . exceedingly vivid." —New York Times Book Review

"[A] great book. Feifer's account of the three sides and their experiences far surpasses most books about war. His work is a credit to journalism, history and the United States." —Stephen E. Ambrose

"More than a military history, [this book] is also a supremely important, heartrending chronicle of the human condition."

THE GREATEST MEDAL OF HONOR STORIES EVER TOLD

By Tom McCarthy

The one thing the heroes in this collection have in common—from the bloody battlefields of the Civil War through the lonely mountains of Afghanistan—is uncommon valor. Each of the men in these stories had the courage to calmly stare death in the face and move on—to do what they had to because that was their duty and the lives of others meant more to them than their own.

SHERIDAN HOUSE

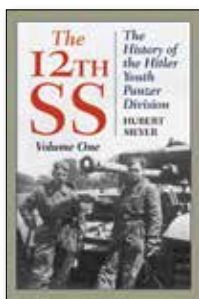

AIR APACHES

By Jay Stout

"Combat aviator-historian Jay Stout again demonstrates mastery of his subject, providing an intimate look at the Air Apaches as they bombed and strafed their way from New Guinea to the Philippines and Okinawa. It's all there—the appalling climate, treacherous weather, and a determined, lethal enemy. All honor to Stout for another last-minute grab at history that is rapidly disappearing beyond our national horizon." —Barrett Tillman, author of Whirlwind: The Air War Against Japan 1942-1945

RITCHIE BOY SECRETS

By Beverley Driver Eddy

"Since I was one of those Ritchie Boys and attended the 7th Class in April 1944, I can vouch for the accuracy of everything described in painstaking detail in this magnificent book. The author's research continued by telling of these soldiers' use of their training in Europe as well as in the Pacific theater, and also of some of their post-war activities in these parts of the world." —Paul Fairbrook, former Ritchie Boy

TIGERS IN THE MUD

By Otto Carius, Translated by Robert J. Edwards

WWII began with a metallic roar as the German Blitzkrieg raced across Europe, spearheaded by the most dreaded weapon of the 20th century: the Panzer. No German tank better represents that thundering power than the infamous Tiger, and Otto Carius was one of the most successful commanders to ever take a Tiger into battle, destroying well over 150 enemy tanks during his incredible career.

ROBERTS RINEHART

THE ANOINTED

By Jeremiah Lambert and Geoffrey S. Stewart

"The Anointed" shows evidence of a great deal of research, and the subject is fascinating...The authors' central (if implicit) point is a good one. The old era was ruled by loyalty and social connections. The profit motive that replaced it may have been crass, but it imposed a welcome regime of merit." —The Wall Street Journal

IN THE TIME OF THE REVOLUTION

By Alan Axelrod

The American Revolution was a war, but it was also a span of history in which some people fought, but most just lived. They thought, acted, worked, raised families, worshipped, built, sold, bought, and tried to live as best they could in a time of hope, anxiety, despair, loss, gain, and, above all, disruption. This is a popular, single-volume history of the American Revolution, 1775 to 1783, an intensely active, exciting, and critical span of time in North America.

THE DETECTIVE IN THE DOORYARD

By Timothy A. Cotton

When I stumbled across Tim Cotton's writing, I assumed that he was a dedicated cop who wrote amusing stories on the side. Having read his book, however, I'm now beginning to think he is a dedicated writer who arrests ne'er-do-wells in his spare time. Whatever his true passion, this is a very funny book, and I hope he writes another one. —Mike Rowe, host of Dirty Jobs and Somebody's Gotta Do It

GRANDMA DROVE THE GARBAGE TRUCK

By Katie Clark

Grandma has run the town's garbage business, and her three sons drive the trucks. But what happens when her sons are all too sick to work-and it's the 4th of July, the day of the Big Parade? Leave it to Grandma to get the town clean, with the help of her young grandson, Billy, as she embarks on a hilarious romp through town-and creates nearly as much mess as she cleans up.

OUT THERE

By The Editors of Outside Magazine

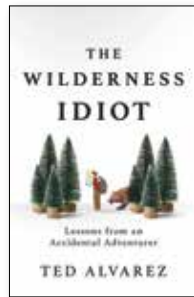

"Out There is one hell of a page turner, authored by some of the finest journalists of our time. I highly recommend it. These are the wildest tales from the fringe, the very crème de la crème of madness, divine or otherwise. Here are stories of misadventures mirthful and appalling, vagabonds on hellish journeys, fanatics of freaky sports, and emperors of obsession."

THE MENTAL ABCS OF PITCHING

By H.A. Dorfman, Foreword by Rick Wolff

"When Harvey left our organization to go work for Florida, we didn't even try to replace him because, quite frankly, his legacy was already throughout our system. All of the players and coaches and staff he touched over the years... had become imbued with his philosophy and approach to the game. They have become Harvey's disciples." —SANDY ANDERSON, General Manager, New York Mets

THE LONG WAY

By Bernard Moitessier, Translated by William Rodarmor

"There is a 60-page appendix that can stand alone as a small reference volume of details such as route planning, sail repair, the problems of sail and line chafe, rigging and hull construction, self-steering, freak waves and weather, plus much more. Altogether a strange, fascinating, and informative book." —Boat U.S.

CASTING FORWARD

By Steve Ramirez, Foreword by Ted Williams, Illustrated by Bob White

"Every bit the unique sort of Hill Country artistry as a Jerry Jeff Walker show at Gruene Hall. These words are incredibly honest, gritty, and melodic... sometimes rowdy, always soulful. Steve Ramirez has an uncanny knack for conveying the 360-degree perspective of fly fishing like only an author who has seen so much—and felt so much—can. He's an angling balladeer." —Kirk Deeter, Editor-in-Chief, Trout Unlimited/Trout Media

THE GREATEST FISHING STORIES EVER TOLD

Edited by Lamar Underwood

"Every once in a while, a book publisher comes up with a great concept for a series of books that deserve more than superficial recognition. Such a series is "The Greatest (fill in the blank) Stories Ever Told", anthologies that should win places on many bedside tables. On the long winter nights that lie ahead, such stories make great reading." —The Lexington County Chronicle

THE PREPPER'S MEDICAL HANDBOOK

By William Forgey M.D.

"Forgey provides extensive help in situational assessment – is it heartburn or heart attack? Twisted, strained, broken ankle? And how to stabilize the situation. This is not so much a book to carry with you, but a book to read – cover-to-cover – every year or so. If things turn sour, what Doc Forgey calls prepping could be just what you need." —Tim Mead, Midwest Outdoor Journal

WRIGHT BROTHERS, WRONG STORY

By William Hazelgrove

"By far the best published work on the Wright brothers' personal and professional lives. Thought-provoking and controversial in highlighting Wilbur's brilliance in aeronautics and showing how he clearly overshadowed his brother's contribution to manned flight. A must-read for academics and those interested in aviation history." —Alan C. Carey, author of We Flew Alone: Men and Missions of the United States Navy's B-24 Liberator Squadrons

DEVIL'S ROOMING HOUSE

By M. William Phelps

"Amy Archer-Gilligan—Sister Amy, she was called—was a murderess well-enough known to be cited as an inspiration for the Joseph Kesselring's perennial grim farce, Arsenic and Old Lace.... Amy's sensational trial attracted great interest, and Phelps wraps the whole dirty business in a delightfully cozy narrative. A genteel true-crime excursion." — Booklist

ALICE & GERALD

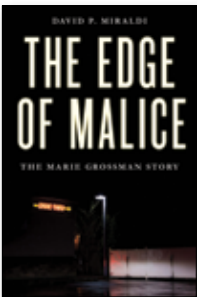

By Ron Franscell

"Fascinating and disturbing. . . A worthwhile read for true-crime fans."—Booklist

"Compulsively readable. Imminently astonishing. Only Ron Franscell, one of America's most talented and thoughtful crime writers, could render this story of a deadly and monstrous relationship with both lightning-paced prose and a keen awareness of the psychopathology of his subjects. Bound to be a bestseller."

INSIDER'S GUIDE

WITCHES AND WARLOCKS OF MASSACHUSETTS

By Peter Muise

A collection of legends and historical accounts about witches and warlocks from the Bay State. Organized by region, city and town, the book's dozens of stories include the earliest Puritan accounts of 17th century witches, urban legends about desolate locations haunted by ghostly witch hunt victims, tales of Cape Cod sailors battling witches, and other stories of sinister (and sometimes sympathetic) spellcasters.

PORTLAND, MAINE CHEF'S TABLE

By Margaret Hathaway, Photographs by Karl Schatz

"Though by now it is common knowledge that Portland is home to a progressive, ever-growing food community, it is refreshing to see such an impressive array of restaurants represented in this book. Equally exciting is the diversity of the cuisine prepared by these chefs, with the scope of the recipes lending themselves to any given night and any manner of craving." —Joe Ricchio, Food Editor, Maine Magazine & Host of Food Coma TV

Florida has 1200 miles of coastline, almost 700 miles of which are sandy beaches. Exploring along those beaches offers encounters with myriads of plants, animals, minerals, and manmade objects—all are covered in this comprehensive guide. ROCK AND ROLL EXPLORER GUIDE TO SAN FRANCISCO AND THE BAY AREA

By Mike Katz and Crispin Kott, Foreword by Joel Gion

"A great history of the often overlooked musical contributions of the San Francisco Valley area. From Etta James to the Grateful Dead, Santana to CCR to Metallica and SO many more, this great combo travel guide/music history/biography has so much information in it that I know it will be a book I will be rereading, and probably more than once." —NetGalley

BLAKE SHELTON

Happy Anywhere
By Carol Cash Large, Foreword by Blake Shelton

"I think it is so cool that Carol kept a journal on all the events that happened in Blake Shelton's life. It's one thing to get Blake's point of view but to hear another person's perspective, who was there with him every step of the way, is priceless. I wish I had somebody writing all of those memories down for my career! I learned a lot about Blake and his early days in country music—I know you will too." —Reba McEntire

"Soul of Goodness is a masterpiece which blends the images of the novel, the philosopher's wisdom and the journalist's clarity. Written beautifully through the powers of images and narratives, the novel is used in the service of philosophy and philosophy itself as the dwelling place of all those who want to wonder, to imagine and be healed." —Teodros Kiros (PH.D) Professor of Philosophy at Berklee college and Harvard University, producer and host of African Ascent, Self-Definition and other works

CASTING ONWARD

Fishing Adventures in Search of America's Native Gamefish
By Steve Ramirez, Illustrated by Bob White, Foreword by Chris Wood

"The River Why, by David James Duncan, so profoundly influenced me that I named a beloved dog after the protagonist, Gus. A Fly-Fisherman's Blue Ridge, by Chris Camuto and Holy Ghost Creek by Frank Weissbarth, are two of the finest fishing books I have ever read—mostly because they are not really about fishing. Casting Onward sits in the pantheon of these books. It is a book about fishing, but on a much more important level, it is about us, our relationship with one-another, and our relationship with the lands and waters that sustain the planet." —Chris Wood, President/CEO, Trout Unlimited
